SOME ONE'S SERVANT GIRL.

She stood there leaning wearily
Against the window frame,
Her face was patient, sad and sweet,
Her garments coarse and plain;
Who is she pray? I asked a friend,
The red lips gave a curl—
"Really! I do not know her name,
She's some one's servant girl.

Again, I saw her on the street
With burden trudge along,
Her face was sweet, and patient still,
Amid the jostling throng;
Slowly, but cheerfully she moved,
Guarding with watchful care
A market basket much too large
For her slight hands to bear.

A man, I'd thought a gentleman,
Went pushing rudely by,
Sweeping the basket from her hands,
But turning not his eye;
For there was no necessity
Amid the busy whirl,
For him to be a gentleman—
To some one's servant girl.

Ah! well it is, that God above
Looks in upon the heart,
And never judges any one
By just the outer part;
For if the soul be pure, and good,
He will not mind the rest,
Nor question what the garments were—
In which the form was dressed.

And, many a man, or woman fair—
By fortune reared and fed,
Who will not mingle here below
With those who earn their bread,
When they have passed away from life,
Beyond the gates of pearl,
Will meet before their Father's throne—
With many a servant girl.

Miscellaneous.

From the Elmira Daily Gazette.

The Great McKean Gathering.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—An event, which was certainly very interesting to all participants, came off on the farm of John McKean Esq., about two miles from Troy, Pa., on Wednesday, August 17th.

The McKean family was there called together for the purpose of mutual exchange of facts in relation to family history, better acquaintance of relatives and a good family time generally.

Great and perfect preparations had been made—and no disappointment was met in regard to numbers and a general good feeling.

During the forenoon, hacks, carriages, &c., were continually pouring in from all directions until about two o'clock—a finely executed collation was spread in a large shed tastily fitted up for the occasion.

At the first table 128 persons were served, and at the second enough to complete 260 well satisfied stomachs.

After this and some music provided by the "Troy Brass Band" (which was provided for a pleasant variety) a meeting was organized with Thos. McKean Esq., of Centre Co., Pa., Pres't, and Rev. Samuel McKean, of Amsterdam, N. Y., Sec'y. After an appropriate prayer by the Rev. Mr. Chip, (he's in the circle by marriage) a very complete and concise history of the origin of the name, the various changes in its rendering and also of its history was given by Hon. Jas. B. McKean, late of Saratoga, N. Y. now on his way to take his place on the bench as Chief Justice of the Territory of Utah.

The name originally was spelled Mackian and for four centuries the oldest son in succession of that name was chief of the McDonalds, of Glen Co., Scotland.

About the year 1745 two or three of the McKean family, which, by positive proof is a corruption of the name Mackian, emigrated to thi country, settling in Maryland and Delaware.

Jas. McKean, the ancestor of all the family represented at this gathering, removed from Cecil Co., Md., to Chemung Co., N. Y., in the year 1786, and about four years afterward to Burlington, Bradford County, Penn. Ten children were born to him mostly after his setling at Burlington. From these ten, (eight boys and two girls,) have sprung a large and thrifty stock, who are found in many sections of the land, and not a few of whom have been and are known to fame in the service of their country in many ways.

Short addresses were also made by Rev. Samuel McKean, Hon. Allen McKean, of Towanda, Wad. Wilson, of Alba, (an old gentleman, upward of seventy years,) and by others.

Resolutions were passed thanking Mr. John McKean and wife, for the hospitality displayed. Plans were discussed for future meetings of the family. Historians were appointed one for the descendants of each of the ten children, whose duty it is to compile a complete list of their separate branch, with all particulars as to age, deaths, marriages and important facts, and communicate them to the Rev. Samuel McKean, who kindly takes the responsibility of condensing the matter so that it can be accurately referred to.

The doxology was sung and the formal meeting closed with the benediction, and after a combination of visiting for a short time, the company dispersed, with many new ties of lasting friendship made, and a general sorrow that such a meeting can not oftener be their lot to attend.

Representatives were present from as far west as Iowa who had come especially to attend this re union.

It was ascertained that there were present, two persons who had married two of the original ten (none of the ten themselves living), also—

Twenty six children.
Eighty three grand children.
Fifteen great grand children.
Twenty five who had married children,
Twenty-two who had married grand children.
One who had married a great grand child.
A total of one hundred and seventy-two.

May very many live (it cannot be all,) to, at some future day, see a like and a larger gathering for the same good purposes. E.

A London editor seems rather surprised to learn from the Louisville Courier that a man named De Bond; who was wounded in the head by a minie bullet in 1864 has lived six years with the ball in his brain. We are not surprised, for we know many instances of men so bullet-headed that if they received a ball in the brain, the only person who would suffer by it would be the sergeon—because when he came to operate he would find it impossible to say which was brain and which was bullet.

The Beginning and End of the Second Empire.

The following from the Buffalo Express may possibly be read with interest at the present time. It is, perhaps, "premature" to hazard an opinion as to the termination or otherwise of the second Empire, but the brief history of Louis Napoleon's career may not be unacceptable :

It is premature to assert that the Second Empire is already brought to a close, but the indications are many and strong that its days are numbered. The incidents of the last few days show how the Empire has been lost, if we may already assume it as virtually a thing of the past. The circumstances under which it was called into existence are not, however, by any means so fresh in the public memory. A few reminders, therefore, of some of the prominent episodes in the career of Louis Napoleon may not at this juncture be considered out of place.

In the year of 1841 Louis Napoleon, then a needy adventurer, boldly entered Strasburg, and announced himself as the heir and successor of his uncle, the great Napoleon. One solitary regiment at once hailed him with enthusiasm, but as the remainder of the garrison maintained their fidelity he was summarily arrested. After trial, the clemency of Louis Philippe, the reigning King of the French, preserved his life, but he was condemned to imprisonment in the fortress of Ham. Here he suffered a confinement of five years, but at length succeeded in evading his guards and effecting his escape. It is curious to observe, by the light of subsequent events, what little importance was at that time attached to this evasion, for an official organ said, "As the escape can never come to prejudice any one, we congratulate those upon it whom it immediately concerns. It is the species of success we would willingly procure for every kind of pretender." The Prince fled to England, where he remained until his absurd descent on Boulogne, when he was once more arrested.

The events following the revolution of 1848 and the expulsion of the Orleans dynasty once more brought our adventurer to the surface. During the memorable days of the short-lived republic he succeeded in becoming elected for four constituencies, and took his seat as member for the Department of the Seine. Louis Napoleon had thus closely approached the object of his many years' ambition, and he is next seen as one of the candidates for the Presidency of the French republic. His principal opponent was General Cavaignac, as sound a patriot and as true a Republican as the world ever saw. But the honored name born by the Prince overbore all opposition, and the tried soldier found himself in a minority of four million votes as compared with his fortunate competitor. Some remarks made in his address may here be quoted: "I am not so ambitous as to dream sometimes of the Empire, sometimes of war, sometimes of subversive principles. * * * I shall always remain faithful to the duties which your suffrages imposed upon me. * * * I shall consider my honor pledged at the expiration of four years to leave to my successor power confirmed, liberty intact. * * * Peace is the dearest object of my desires."

Yet the next step of this man who was "not so ambitious as sometimes to dream of empire" was to seize the imperial position by main force, and to reach a throne through the blood and the imprisonment of his fellow-republicans. The National Assembly had no alternative left but to recognize his popular election as President. But it was jealous of his growing powers and its own wavering influence. Thus efforts, legitimate and otherwise, were made to limit his authority, till it became clear that a final and deadly struggle must arise between the two conflicting powers. Members of the Assembly openly inaugurated an armed insurrection, which was speedily suppressed. Still the President awaited the time when he thought he could strike with effect. Accordingly, without any premonition, about two o'clock in the morning of the second of December, 1851, he seized, most of them in their beds, all his most prominent opponents in military and legislative life. The most distinguished generals of France were thus captured; equally with the most celebrated statesmen and parliamentarians. Thus France lay at his mercy. This high-handed proceeding was not likely to pass without resistance, and accordingly the population flew to arms as soon as the tyranical proceeding became known. A great slaughter of citizens followed, but the preparations of the usurper had been too well considered to give this uprising any chance of success. There was no longer any power adequately to resist him, the army having been bought over, and his proclamation of Emperor followed as a matter of course. His subsequent career need not be dwelt upon; but it is possible that before these lines are in print the news may come that the usurper has lost his throne as suddenly as he acquired it.

The Census.

Superintendent Walker has made an estimate and places the total population of the country at 40,000,000. He argues that the large cities will fall twenty per cent. below the estimates placed upon their populations, for the reason that the estimates are all based upon calculations made of the number who are arriving in the city. But no note has been taken of those who have left. The Chicageans are now much disappointed over their figures, showing but 250,000 when they expected 400,000, but it is the same with Cincinati, where they claimed over 300,000 and have but barely 200,000. It is so with all the Western cities, and to a larger figure in the Eastern cities. He says that the number of houses unoccupied in the large cities is almost fabulous, and is a proof of the fact that many persons are leaving the larger cities and going West and South. General Walker proposes to give the country all the information gathered as rapidly as he obtains it, and he will not wait for several years until a book can be published. He is laboring with his corps of clerks with much earnestness to get the work sufficiently ahead so as to give Congress next December a full and interesting report of our population, trade, business manufactures, mines, lands, &c.

A colored man recently applied to a prominent gentleman residing on Fifth Avenue for a letter of recommendation by means of which he hoped to obtain a situation. The man being well known to the gentleman in question, the testimonial was readily given. It was even more complimentary than Scipio himself had expected, and that worthy, on recovering his astonishment, exclaimed: "Say, Mr——, won't you give me something to do your self on that recommendation?"

A precocious boy, in a public school out West, who stands high in geography, was recently asked by his teacher where Africa was located. He promptly answered, "All over the United States."

Some Christians attend church like parade duty, for which they expect pay in the other world.

Bishop Simpson on The War.

Bishop simpson, the eminent Methodist divine, preached in the Elmira Opera House on Sunday morning 28th ult., to one of the largest audiences ever assembled in that building. The Advertiser, which publishes a full report of the sermon, says that at least 2,500 people got within the building, and nearly an equal number were turned away from the doors, being unable to obtain admission. The Bishop preached from 1 Peter, 1st Chap., 10th, 11th and 12th verses. In alluding to the war, he said :

We have but lately emerged from one of the mightiest conflicts that ever shook the world. There are mothers here whose hearts are almost buried away yonder with the brave boys who sleep uncoffined and unshrouded in southern soil; there are those here whose hope and comfort lies on yonder battle field. Oh, well might this terrible struggle be compared to stars falling from Heaven, for many of the stars on our old flag fell in the midst of the battle-array. But the storm passed away and peace came back to our shores, and with it what a change. The Bible put into hands that never dared hold it before, freedom and righteousness joining hands to help our land. Scarcely had the smoke of our battle field cleared away, before that terrible war between Prussia and Austria begun. Austria, at this time, was the great Papal power. In a very short period, so much of Germany as Austria included, was conquered and joined to Prussia, and freedom of conscience was vouchsafed to the people. I had an illustration of the effects of this struggle a few weeks ago, while in Europe. In speaking about sending missionaries to any quarter it was always said, "you can send them there because it is a part of Prussia." There is not a man in the whole world who is a greater friend of christianity than Bismarck.

Every single application which has been made to Bismarck he has immediately authorized religious freedom. Do we not see God moving in these things, and His stately steppings among the nations of the earth? The Bible is now scattered all through Austria, and christian missionaries can go anywhere in that country without molestation.

It seems strange that as soon as the great Council declared the Pope infallible, that struggle between France and Prussia should have begun. The very week they made the proclamation, like thunder from a clear sky, came the proclamation of war, and France, strange enough, declared it was a war between Protestantism and Catholicism,—that it was time to stay the spread of the Protestant Religion. Every man said how soon France would take Berlin. It was thought that the French army was so well drilled that it would overpower the Prussians in a very short time. But so great was the mistake in this prophecy that the news which we hear from across the seas tell us that the Prussians are on to Paris. Thus we see the time is coming when the last cloud shall be chased away, the last storm shall speed its fury. I have thought it may be while I live, but I can not tell. As the prophets stood inquiring "what time," so we stand inquiring "what time." Soon the last earthquake shall shake the seas, the last blood be shed, the last battle fought.

The Germans in America.

The Germans of America are learning a new lesson in humanity. The struggle in the Fartherland says the Phil. Press has fired the Republicans of the whole world. The flag of Liberty is already raised in the Pyrenees and the Appenines, Castella in Spain and Garibaldi in Italy hear the tramp of the German columns and echo the shouts of the German victory; and England, not through her people, throbs responsive to the same great events. Even in France, the masses, dissatisfied with Napoleon, long for fuller franchises from his over-throw. In America alone do we find the party that sympathized with the rebellion indifferent to this mighty movement against dynastic insolence. The whole Republican party, without an exception, takes the lead on the side of Progress and Humanity. That party did not wait to count the chances. They did not pause to see which side would win. They saw where their sympathies were needed, and gave them with full hearts; and when the aggressor marched out his confident legions, the voice of Republican America went over the seas to encourage the assailed and insulted Germans.

We do not censure the Democratic presses and politicians for the part they have taken. It is the logic of their record during and since our bloody rebellion. Why should they prayed for the success of the great nationality that pray for our success in that dark hour? While the Democracy were preaching repudaition and depreciating our currency and our securities, the Germans were upholding our credit, investing in our bonds, and sending thousands of their sons to till our fields and build our towns. And while France was plotting our overthrow, and up to the last moment holding out hopes to the Democratic rebels of a recognition of the Confederacy, Germany was speaking through Baron Gerolt, the Prussian minister at Washington, the steady and earnest God-speed of its sovereign and its people. The intense feelings of our German fellow-citizens in their hour of manly exultation will not subside in view of this thoughtful contrast, but will crystallize into a memory that will show itself in the only way in which freemen can pay their debts to friend and foe—at the ballot-box.

Tariff Resolutions.

At the late Expositions of Textile Fabrics, held at Indianapolis, Ind., the following resolutions were passed. No explanations are needed—they explain themselves :

Resolved, That we recognize the free trade movement as a struggle on the part of our British competitors for the control and possession of our markets by breaking down our new industries which control would be disastrous to our industry and finances.

Resolved, That we ask the free traders to take open ground for free trade and low wages—the latter being the inevitable result of their theory—and no longer claim or pretend to be the friends of the workingman, when in fact they are his enemies, and their success will reduce him to the pauper pay of British factory workmen, or deprive him wholly of employment.

Resolved, That we ask the manufacturers of England and Europe to come there with their capital, skill, workmen and machinery, to help pay our taxes, be fed from our farms, pay their workmen American wages, and share the benefits of our free institutions, and we welcome them to a full and fair enjoyment of the benefits which they claim we enjoy by reason of our protective policy, and consider such fair competition far more honorable than the effort to reduce our people to national ruin by the spread of free trade sophisms among us.

Why is a large carpet like the late rebellion? Because it took such a lot of tax to put it down.

A Beautiful Thought.

It was night—Jerusalem slept as quietly amid her hills as a child upon the breast of its mother. The noiseless sentinal stood like a statue at his post, philosopher's lamp burnt dimly in the recess of his chamber.

But O, dark night was now abroad upon the earth. A moral darkness involved the nations in its benighted shadows. Reason shed a faint glimmering over the minds of men, like the cold inefficient shining of a distant star. The immortality of man's spiritual nature was unknown, his revelations to heaven undiscovered, and his future destiny obscured in a cloud of mystery.

It was at this period, two forms of ethereal mould hovered over the head of God's people. They seemed like sister angels sent to earth on some embassy of love. The one was of majestic stature, and the well formed limbs which her showey drapery hardly concealed, in an impressive gesture upwards, where night appeared to have placed her darkest pavilion, while on her left reposed her delicate companion, in form and countenance the contrast of the other, for she was drooping like a flower when moistened by refreshing dews, and her bright but troubled eyes scanned the air with ardent but varying glances. Suddenly a light like the sun flashed out from heaven, and Faith and Hope hailed with exulting songs the ascending Star of Bethlehem.

Years rolled away, and a stranger was seen in Jerusalem. He was a meek, unassuming man, whose happiness seemed to consist in acts of benevolence to the human race. There were deep traces of sorrow on his countenance, though no one knew why he grieved, for he lived in the practice of every virtue, and was loved by all the good and wise. By and by it was rumored that the stranger worked miracles. That the blind saw, the dumb spake, and the dead leaped to life. That when he commanded, the ocean moderated its chafing tide, and the very thunder articulated he is the Son of God. Envy assailed him with the charge of sorcery, and the voice of impious judges condemned him to death.

Slowly, painfully, and thickly guarded, he ascended the hill of Calvary. A heavy cross bent him to the earth. But Faith leaped upon his arm, and Hope dipped her pinions in his blood, and mounted to the skies.

QUERY.—Where does Meek stand? Does he stand upon the Resolutions voted down by the Democratic Senatorial Conference, or is he in favor of the nine million swindle? If Crawford and Petriken refused to endorse these resolutions is not the inference plain, that they are in favor of a big steal? Is it not also clear that Crawford and Petriken are the creatures—the mere tools and playthings, the cats paws, of and for James Burns and other notorious lobbyists and government swindlers? Is not the animus of the success of Meeks nomination and election fully explained, by the action of said Democratic conference? Does it not confirm the truth of all we have stated in regard to Meek being the favorite candidate of Burns, Potter & Co.? How will Centre county Democrats support a ticket, refusing to endorse resolutions, offered by the Centre county conferees as the embodiment of Democratic principles?

MISCELLANAOUS ITEMS.

The man "over-bored" was an editor.

The individual who was "hanging in suspense" was a horse thief.

The person who "taxes our ingenuity" is a revenue officer.

The man who "lost his little awl" was a shomaker. He still "clings to the last."

The man whose "first impression were often wrong," was a printer.

The man who "gained more than he lost" was a gambler.

The lady with "a single purpose" is an old maid.

The man who had "just got his hand in," was a pickpocket.

The man who was supposed to have "gone up" has "come down handsomely."

A good man in Iowa has been arrested for obtaining goods under false pretences. He got a girl to marry him on the pretence that he was wealthy. The "goods" don't like that way of doing.

A Scotch preacher had preached his audience out of the church, when one of the weary ones asked another if the sermon, was done yet. The reply was, "His taw's (tow) dune lang syde; but he's spinin awa yet.

A young lady who was engaged to be married soon, passing a barber shop, saw her intended in a chair, and the barber fanning him. She supposed he must be sick, so she rushed in and threw herself in his arms, and found he was only having his mostache dyed. She got some of the stuff on her face, which colored her fair cheek, and so disgusted her that she broke off the engagement.

A Chicago paper is responsible for the story that a few days since some boys in that city dropped an anvil weighing two hundred pounds out of the fourth story window on the head of an African who was passing, and he had them arrested. He said he was willing, to let the boys have fun, but when they jamed a "gem man's" hat down over his eyes and spoiledit in that way, the law must take its course.

OUR COUNTY TICKET.

Having noticed our Senatorial ticket and candidates elsewhere, we, with pleasure, now direct the attention of the honest voters of Centre County to our County Ticket—the ticket placed in nomination by our County Convention which assembled on the 11th day of August last. That Convention, by acclamation, placed in nomination for Assembly, of Gregg township. Mr. Duncan was not a candidate. He did not seek the office. He did not want the nomination. He was nominated against his will, and has only consented to run in obedience to the earnest entreaties of his personal friends and the friends of the Republican party. We are right glad that he has at last consented to run, for his name is a tower of strength in Centre County.—So gentlemanly in his deportment; so honest and upright in his dealings with his fellow-men, we believe we can safely say that he has not a personal enemy in the County, in any neighborhood, or in any political party. As a practical, successful business man, he no doubt has many equals; but certainly no superior.

R. H. DUNCAN, ESQ.,

In connection with the great enterprise which now interests every citizen of Centre county; but more especially the people of the lovely Penns Valley—the L. C. & S. C. R. R., we think we can safely say without exaggeration, that no one man has done more, or excelled the indefatigable efforts of R. H. Duncan, Esq., in behalf of this road. We do not allege that he deserves any extra credit for this, and we believe he does not claim any, for as he says, he has only done his duty. What he has done has been done honestly and in good faith, for the speedy completion of the road from one end of the valley to the other—from Lewisburg to Spruce Creek, or Tyrone.

Taking into consideration the fine business qualifications, the immediate personal and local interests in the Penns Valley Railroad, the well known and universally conceded character for honesty and integrity of R. H. Duncan, all, all, point to him as the man, the proper man to represent our county in the next Legislature. We sincerely hope, that our fellow citizens of all parties will agree with us in this opinion.

The Convention nominated for the office of County Commissioner of Milesburg. In choosing Mr. Malone for this important office, the convention, in our opinion, manifested its good judgment in the highest degree. Mr. Malone is an excellent man—one of the people—honest capable and worthy. He is a good scholar, a first rate penman and a correct accountant, and is therefore qualified in every particular to fill the office of County Commissioner to his own honor and to the advantage, in a financial point of view of the tax-payers of the county.

Just here permit us to suggest to every voter in Centre county this idea, to wit: It would be a great advantage and a great saving of money, to have the Board of county Commissioners divided in political sentiment. As at present organized, it is Democratic. The Commissioners are all members of the same party. They do as they please. They think alike. They use the funds of the tax-payers as best suits them. And we think we have abundantly proven that they have not always used the peoples money to the best advantage, often indeed detrimental to the interest of the tax-payers and beneficially to themselves, individually. The construction of the $60,000 new jail is a case in point. Now we hold, that at least one of the County Commissioners should be a Republican, honest and capable, and like Cæsar's wife above suspicion. Such a man is our candidate, Daniel B. Malone. Tax-payers elect him, that he may keep an eye on your interests in that office.

For the office of Jury Commissioner, our old true and tried friend of Walker township, was nominated and will be elected of course. Herein the convention showed its esteem and love for the soldiers. In years past our party has nominated soldiers for almost every position in the gift of the people. We put them on the ticket merely, it seemed, to be defeated, beaten down by the Democratic rebel sympathisers. We honored the soldier, but the Democracy proved that they had no respect for him, or the patriotic cause in which he fought, by voting against him, defeating him in every instance except where the soldier first denied his principles and the sacredness of the war to conquer the rebellion. For the office of Jury Commissioner our brave old soldier friend cannot be defeated as the law requires one man from each party to fill the office. In selecting Henry McEwen for this office, in thus honoring him, the Republican Convention honored itself, and payed tribute to the claims of the soldier.

For County Auditor the convention placed in nomination our esteemed fellow citizen

JOHN I. THOMPSON, ESQ.

Mr. Thompson arose in the convention and declined the nomination; but his voice was drowned by the cheers and huzzahs of the members there. He said I do not seek this or any other office. They said, for this very reason we have chosen you. The party, the people have claims upon you. You must acquiesce in their wishes. Mr. Thompson did acquiesce. He is now our candidate, and his whole successful life is proof positive of his fitness for the office of County Auditor. It is a very important office, and one that the tax-payers should determine to have filled with a good accountant and an honest man. Such a man is John I. Thompson.

Republicans, workingmen, tax-payers of Centre of such men as we have noticed is our ticket composed. Your own bests interests demand that you elect them.

"RALLY ROUND THE FLAG BOYS."

Republicans, workingmen, soldiers of Centre Co., we call upon you to "Rally round the old flag" once more. The Republican party is the party which, under God saved the life of the nation—saved the Union, saved our constitutional and religious liberties. It has proved itself to be the true friend of the great doctrine of Protection to American labor," and therefore the true and tried friend of the workingmen of the country.

We call upon you one and all to organized for the contest, organize, for the success of our liberty loveing principles, organize for the success of our whole ticket. The enemy is again in the field, he is marshaling his hosts. He has been in the wrong, woefully in the wrong for the past twelve years. In the hour of our Country's deepest, darkest peril his sympathies were all with the enemy. He was opposed to the war, opposed to freedom, opposed to justice and the Rights of man. In short he was in error, against the soldier, against his government. "Not another man nor another dollar for the prosecution of the war" was his language at that time. At a time when thousands of our brave boys were in the army bearing their breasts to the storms of iron hail hurled upon them by the rebel foe. He refused you help aid or comfort then. Will you trust him now. We know you will not.

To this end let us work. And in order that we may work and work effectually, intelligently, and successfully we have appointed the following series of meetings. See to it friends that these meetings are well attended. Stir up your luke-warm neighbor. Urge him to attend the meeting. See your honest Democratic friend, converse with him, treat him kindly and if possible take him with you to the meeting. A grand rally, one long pull and a strong pull, all together, and the victory will be on our side—the side of justice, Right God and humanity.

Republicans. Working men, friends of freedom once more we urge you to do your whole duty. Come out in your strength to each meeting in your respective neighborhood. Work as you have never worked before. Work to make the meetings a success. Work for the ticket the whole ticket, from Congressman to Auditor.

Able speakers will be present at all of the above meetings.

JAS. H. RANKIN,
Chairman.

No words ever rang through the whole world so swiftly and with such effect as the message of King William to the Queen, announcing the surrender of Napoleon. And so terse, so comprehensive, so modest, and so reverential. From first to last that old monarch has acknowledged God in all his reports of victory. His first dispatch to the Queen at the begining of the war was, "Our Fritz has won a great victory. God be praised. Fire a salute." And the last is like it. He seems amazed at the great result, and exclaims. "What a course, under God's guidance, events have taken!" As if he had said, "Not unto us—not unto us!"

ORGANIZE! ORGANIZE!—We implore you, friends, to heal up all divisions in our ranks, if any divisions exist, and organize for victory and the redemption of Centre county from Democratic misrule. We can carry the county and the district if you will only determine to do so and work earnestly and energetically to accomplish that desired end. Work, work, organize and work.

WAR news not much different from that of last week. Prospects of peace brightening.

WHAT THE PRESS THROUGHOUT THE DISTRICT SAYS—WILSON AND WOODS.

We clip the following notices of our Senatorial candidates from papers published in other counties in the district. They show conclusively that the press and people—the great republican people of this district are a unit, and determined to elect Messrs. Wilson and Woods. The following we clip from the Blair county Radical. It is sound in its logic, just in its conclusions and manly and magnanimous in its utterance of them. We commend them to our readers and to all the papers and Republicans of the district.

"The Republican Conference by its wisdom and discretion at Lewistown, made sure beyond doubt a decided victory in this Senatorial district. The Conference was full, there was a full and free interchange of opinion and just what was needed to insure the party the control of the next Senate, was done. The claims of the only counties really having claims, were recognized not grudgingly, but cordially, because they were valid and entitled to an honorable recognition.

Of the candidates selected, little need be said. Both are pronounced Republicans, and each has long been recognized as a representative man in his respective county. Three years ago Mr. Wilson was the choice of Centre, and Mr. Woods that of Mifflin, for the two positions for which they have just been nominated. Both are men of conceded ability; both lawyers of prominence at their respective bars; both gentlemen of irreproachable private characters.

In the selection of Messrs. Wilson and Woods, the Republicans of the entire State will recognize an earnest determination on the part of their party brethren to secure what has long been regarded as a doubtful district, and preserve the party ascendency in the Senate. No other two candidates before the Conference could have more thoroughly united the party; no two have more ability; no two were more deserving.

The campaign opens auspiciously, and with an earnest, manly effort on the part of the masses, our triumph will be such as must crown a party whose leading principle is Equal and Exact Justice to All Men and whose candidates are able, honorable, honest men.

The Juniata Sentinel after giving a brief statement of the Senatorial Conference, speaks of its nominees as follows:

"The nomination is a good one. The Senators elected this fall will take a part in re-districting the State, and in the election of a United States Senator. These are points of vital importance to the Republican party. Let us dispassionately and calmly consider them."

The Sentinal then goes on to say that "There is always more or less of clashing of personal interests in conventions, and that is where they should be; but it has been seldom, indeed, that so little of this trouble has manifested itself as during the present season and especially in our district. The final selections have left the party without quarrels to brood over or split upon, and there is general satisfaction. But the time has come when every active man should be at work."

"First class candidates call for first class majorities, as due to the representative and to the cause. This requires organization, system, zeal and steady work. It should commence early and not relax until the day is won. Victories, like everything of value, cost labor, and Republicans should be up and doing."

The Perry Freeman, published in New Bloomfield, Perry county, Pa., after giving the proceedings of the Senatorial Conference, and speaking of our Senatorial district, "running from the Susquehanna to the Allegheny Mountains, and composed of the counties of Perry, Juniata, Mifflin, Huntingdon, Blair and Centre," says

"On the principle of county rotation, Mifflin and Centre were entitled to the candidates this time. Perry had Maj. Haines, Blair had Col. Hall, Juniata had Col. Robison and Huntingdon had Mr. McVitty; and neither Mifflin nor Centre has had until the present time any Senatorial candidate since the formation of this double District."

The Editor of the Freeman—John A. Baker, in thus acknowledging the claims of Centre and Mifflin, not only proves himself to be a honest politician; but a candid and upright man and has set an example worthy of imitation not only to the Editors and politicians of this district; but to the the press and politicians of the entire State.

The Freeman then adds: we place the names of these candidates under the editorial head of this paper.

With David W. Woods, of Lewistown, we have some acquaintance. He is a respectable member of the Mifflin county Bar; is a brother of the President Judge of that judicial district: and is a son of the late Rev. Woods, who was for many years a Presbyterian Minister at Lewistown. He is a man of good business habits, and possesses qualifications of a high order. His personal character is without spot or blemish. He deserves well of the Republican party, and we are confident will receive the zealous support of every Republican in Perry county.

With the other Senatorial nominee, we are not personly acquainted. He is a member of the Centre county Bar; and is represented to be a gentleman well qualified for the position. Of course, he will receive the cordial support of the Republicans of Perry.

Can these candidates be elected? Certainly they can, if the Republicans of the District are harmonious and united, for there is a Republican majority in the District beyond all controversy. Are there any divisions in the District? There has been, but it is understood there are none now. Last year there was "an unpleasantness" in Huntingdon county; but it is now believed the Republicans of that county are a "happy family," disposed to let "bygons be bygons." As we understand the lookout, there is rather more unanimity in the Republican ranks than there is in the Democratic party in the six counties comprising this district. We think we are not mistaken in this opinion, and that facts justify fully our assertion.

It therefore appears that Woods and Wilson can be elected, if the Republicans choose to do so. The Republicans of Perry will do their duty in the matter; and they call upon their friends in the sister counties to do their duty also.

The election of two Senators is a matter of too much importance to be neglected. The next Legislature will have the districting of the State both for Legislature and Congress. It would be a suicidal policy to give up the advantages we have,, or can so easily secure, by jeoparding the election of two Senators. The District is unquestionably Republican. Hold it level at such. Let no Republican fall back.

The Gazette published in Lewistown, the home of D. Walker Woods Esq., after making brief mention of the Senatorial Conference, says:

Each county presented a candidate for Senator at the conference, and some were urged forward with much zeal, but the right was so clearly with Mifflin and Centre counties that, after some skirmishing, it was recognized and confirmed.

Mr. Wilson, the nominee from Centre, is a gentleman well known, of great moral worth and ability, and no, one we have ever heard of, questions his honesty or integrity.

David W. Woods, our candidate from this county, is a gentleman extensively known as second to none in this or neighboring counties in legal attainments, and as a citizen taking rank among the first in moral worth. That he would be a safe and reliable Senator, who would neither barter himself nor the State to unworthy purposes, no one can doubt; that laws drawn up by him or enacted under his charge would be free from the flaws and imperfections which now so frequently defeat the ends of justice, will hardly be questioned; and that he would scorn corrupt influences his course as an attorney will guarantee.

Unfortunately our Huntingdon county papers have been mislaid; but we are happy to inform our readers that they all—three in number—unite in support of our ticket, Wilson and Woods.

Republicans of Centre, we ask you if you are willing to be behind your neighbors in this great contest? Let us resolve to do our whole duty, Let us show to our friends in the other counties of the district, that we appreciate the honor they have conferred upon us, by selecting our fellow citizen, Wm. P. Wilson, as one of our standard bearers in this contest, by giving him and the whole ticket the largest vote ever polled in Centre county. We have the utmost confidence in you, Republicans of Centre county and we verily believe that you will make a gigantic effort to place our good old county on the list, with the other counties of the commonwealth, which has so long been in the van in the great battle of freedom. Republicans of Centre, awake, arouse, and victory—glorious victory, shall be yours, ours, liberties.

WHAT TAXES HAVE BEEN TAKEN OFF, AND WHEN.

We find in an exchange, the following information, which will be very acceptable to our readers:

"People still continue to inquire what taxes have been taken off, and when the relief takes effect. So far from the new law going into operation immediately on its passage, the changes of internal revenue taxes do not take effect until October 1st, while the new tariff rates do not go into operation until January 1st, 1871. The stamp-taxes, therefore, and the old duties on coffee, tea, etc., which we have been living under so long, are still in force. But, after January next, the duty on tea will be 15 cents a pound, instead of 24; that on coffee 4 cents a pound, instead of 5; molasses, 5 cents a gallon, instead of 8; sugar will be reduced on average of 1 cent per pound; and spices will be reduced in duty about 50 per cent.

"The internal taxes which we shall be wholly relieved from in October next are as follows:

PRESENT TAX.

"1. On carriages of every discription, $6 to $10 each.

"2. On watches, $1 to $2 each.

"3. On billiard tables, $10 each.

"4. On silver plate of all kinds, 5 cts., per pound.

"5. On gold plate, 50 cents per pound.

"6. On passports, $5 each.

"7. On boats, barges, and flats, $5 and $10 each.

"8. On gross receipts, including those of railroads, steamboats, canal-boats, and all other vessels, and stages, 2½ per cent of receipts.

"9. On gross receipts of telegraph companies, ferries, bridges, and turnpikees, 3 per cent of receipts.

"10. On retail dealers (license tax), $10 each.

"11. On wholesale dealers, or those whose sales exceed $25,000 a year, $10 each, and $1 additional on every $1000 of sales exceeding $50,000.

"These taxes on sales are all repealed, except as regards liquors and tobacco.

"12. On banks and bankers, with capital of $50,000, $100 each, and $2 additional on every $1000 of capital above $50,000.

"13. On brokers (license), $50 each.

"14. Hotel-keepers (license), $10 to $300 each.

"15. Auctioneers and peddlers (license), $10 to $50 each.

"16. Claim agents, insurance agents, real estate agents, patent-rights dealers, and conveyancers, $10 each.

"17. Manufacturers (lícense), $10 each.

"18. Proprietors of theatres, museums, circuses, and concert-halls, $100 each.

"19. Proprietors of gift enterprises, $150 each.

"20. Lawyers, physicians, architects, and builders, $10 each.

"21. Coffee and spice grinders, $100 each.

"22. Express carriers and agents, $10 each.

"23. Miners, assayers, plumbers, photographers, apothecaries, butchers, and eating-house keepers, $10 each.

"All others now chargeable with license tax of any kind, except dealers in spirits and tobacco, are compared.

"24. On canned and preserved fish (now paid by stamps), 1 cent per pound.

"25. On bills and receipts, to any amount, and on promissory notes for a less sum than $100 (now paid by stamp), 2 cents and 5 cents each.

"All other stamp-taxes are continued in force.

"26. On legacies and successions, $1 to $6 on every $100 of property devised or inherited according to the degree of relationship. All repealed.

TAXES REDUCED.

"27. On incomes exceeding $2000 for the years commencing January 1st, 1870, and January 1st. 1871, 2½ per cent.

"The exemptions are, in addition to $2000, all taxes and interest paid during the year, losses and bad debts, rents or repairs on dwelling-houses, and amount paid for labor to cultivate land, or to conduct any other business from which income is derived. This is the personal income tax. It is a tolerably easy one.

"28. On dividends of all corporations, for the year 1871, including banks, railroad companies, insurance companies, canal and turnpike companies, trust companies, and saving institutions, 2½ per cent.

"This tax to be paid by the companies, who may deduct it in disbursing their dividends to the individual holders.

IT is a great satisfaction to know that the public debt decreased at the rate of $333 a minute every minute of last month. It is much more pleasing and satisfactory to know that the debt of the nation has been decreased since the first of March nearly as much as the entire year preceeding. During the first year of President Grant's administration, the reduction was nearly $87,000,000; during six months this year the reduction has been a little over $82,000,000. It is fearful to contemplate where our debt would now stand had Seymour and his followers been hoisted to the position now so ably filled by Grant and his Cabinet.

The new tariff admits, duty free, all kinds of animals from beyond the seas imported for breeding purposes.

THE REGISTRY LAW.

We call the attention of our readers to the following section of the Registry Law, passed by the Legislature of 1869, and changing the Spring Election to the Second Tuesday of October:

SECTION 15. All elections for city, ward, borough, township and election officers shall hereafter be held on the second Tuesday of October, subject to all provisions of the laws regulating the election of such officers not inconsistent with this act, the persons elected to such offices at that time shall take their places at the expiration of the terms of the persons holding the same at the time of such election; but no election for the office of assessor or assistant assessor shall be held under this act, until the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

YOUR attention is also directed to the following Act of Assembly, regulating the mode of voting at all elections in the several counties of this Commonwealth:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in general Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same,—That the qualified voters of the several counties of this Commonwealth, at all general, township, Borough and special elections, are hereby hereafter required to vote by tickets, written or printed, or partly printed and partly written, severally classified, as follows: One ticket shall embrace the names of all Judges of Courts voted for, and to be labelled outside, "Judiciary;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all State officers voted for, labelled, "State;" one ticket shall embrace the names of ail County officers voted for, including office of Senator, member and members of Assembly, if voted for, and be labelled, "County;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all Township officers voted for, and be labelled "Township;" one ticket shall embrace the names all Borough officers voted for, and be labelled, "Borough;" and each class shall be deposited in separate ballot-boxes.

It is important that this law should be strictly followed.

STOCK JOURNAL.—The "American Stock Journal and Farmers and Stock Breeders Advertiser" for the month of September is now before us. It is a most excellent work, which every farmer in the State should subscribe for and read. To single subscribers, the price is $1,00 per annum. To clubs; Five copies for $4,00. Ten copies for $8,00. Fifteen copies for $12,00. Twenty copies $16,00 or one hundred copies fr $70,00.

It is published by N. P. Boyer & Co., Parksburg, Chester County Pa., is ably Edited and is worth double the amount of money it costs.

It is always brimful of the very best of useful information for farmers. The September number contains several most capital articles of a few of them to wit; "Driving working horses." "Hatching chickens," "The National History of the cow," Stall feeding Sheep and its Profits," "Fattening Hogs" &c &c. Try one of these articles, but especially the chapter on "Fattening hogs," is worth to any practical or economical farmer the subscription price of the Journal. But we have not space to say more: we may speak of it again in some future number of the REPUBLICAN.

The General Election in all the Townships, Districts and Boroughs of the county is to be opened between the hours of six and seven o'clock in the forenoon, and shall continue without interuption or adjournment until seven o'clock in the evening, when all polls shall be closed.

Every person, excepting Justices of the Peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the Government of the United States or of this State, or of any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate officer or agent, who is or shall be employed under the Legislative, Executive or Judiciary departments of the State or the United States, or of any city or incorporated district, and also every member of Congress or of the State Legislature, and of the Select and Common Councils of any city, or Commissioner of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office the appointment of judge, inspector or clerk of any election of the Commonwealth, and no inspector, judge or other officer of any such election shall be eligible there to be voted for.

The inspectors and Judge of the elections shall meet at their respective places appointed for holding the election in the district, to which they respectively belong, before 9 o'clock in the morning, and each of said inspectors shall appoint one clerk, who shall be a qualified voter of such district.

In case the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend on the day of any election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge at the next preceeding election shall act as inspector in his place. And in case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend, the person elected judge shall appoint an inspector in his place; and in case the person elected judge shall not attend, then the inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a judge in his place; or if any vacancy shall continue in the board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election, the qualified voters of the township, ward or district for which such officers shall have been elected, present at such election shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy.

It shall be the duty of the several assessors of each district to attend at the place of holding every general special or township election, during the whole time said election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information to the inspectors and judges when called on, in relation to the right of any person assessed by them to vote at such election, or such other matters in relation to the assessments of voters as the said inspectors or either of them shall from time to time require.

No person shall be permitted to vote at any election, as aforesaid, other than a white freeman of the age of twenty-one years or more, who shall have resided in the State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers his vote at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or county tax which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States who has previously been a qualified voter of this State and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district and paid taxes as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in this State six months: Provided. That the white freemen, citizens of the United States, between twenty-one and twenty-two years, who have resided in an election district as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote although they shall not have paid taxes.

No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants furnished by the Commissioners, unless first, he produces a receipt for the payment within two years of a State or county tax assessed agreeably to the Constitution and give satisfactory evidence either on his oath or affirmation, or the oath or affirmation of another, that he has paid such a tax, or on failure to produce a receipt, shall make oath to the payment thereof. Second, if he claim the right to vote by being an elector between the age of twenty-one and twenty-two years, he shall depose on oath or affirmation that he has resided in this State at least one year next before his application, and make such proof of residence in the district as is required by this act, and that he does verily believe from the account given him, that he is of age aforesaid, and such other evidence as is required by this act; whereupon the name of the person thus admitted to vote shall be inserted in the alphabetical list by the inspectors, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "tax," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of having paid tax; or the word "age," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of such age shall be called out to the clerks, who shall make the like notes on the list of voters kept by them.

In all cases where the name of the person claiming to vote is found on the list furnished by the Commissioners and assessor, or his right to vote, whether found thereon or not, is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the duty of the inspectors to examine such person on oath as to his qualifications, and if he claims to have resided within the State for one year or more his oath shall be sufficient proof thereof, but shall make proof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector, that he has resided in the district for more than ten days next immediately preceding such election, and shall also himself swear that his bona fied residence, in pursuance of his lawful calling, is in said district for the purpose of voting therein.

Every person qualified as aforesaid, and who shall make due proof, if required, of the residence and payment of taxes as aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward or district in which he shall reside.

If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officer of any election under this act from holding such election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, or shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, or shall block up the window or avenue to any window where the same may be holding, or shall riotously disturbed the peace at such election, or shall use any intimidating threats, force or violence with design to influence unduly or overawe any elector, or to prevent him from voting or to restrain the freedom of choice, such persons, on conviction, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars, and imprisoned for any time not less than three nor more than twelve months, and if it shall be shown to Court, where the trial of such offense shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district or township where the offense was committed, and not entitled to vote therein, then on conviction he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years.

If any person, not by law qualified, shall fraudulently vote at any election of this Commonwealth, or being otherwise qualified shall vote out of his proper district, if any person knowing the want of such qualifications, shall aid or procure such persons to vote, the person offending, shall on conviction be fined in any sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, and be imprisoned in any term not exceeding three months.

If any one shall vote at more than one election district, or otherwise fraudulently vote more than once on the same day, or shall fraudulently fold and deliver to the inspector two tickets together, with the intent illegally to vote, or who shall procure another to do so, he or they offending shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for a term not less than three nor more than twelve months.

If any person not qualified to vote in this Commonwealth agreeably to law (except the sons of qualified citizens), shall appear at any place of election for the purpose of influencing the citizens qualified to vote, he shall on conviction forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for every such offense and be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months.

THE TOWN CLOCK.—Rejoice O! ye long afflicted denizens of this borough; sing aloud for joy and make your hearts glad, for be it known to all of the inhabitants of Bellefonte, that that useless "caudel appendage" commonly known as the Town Council have commenced repairing the delapidated face of the town clock. May they have courage and continue in their well doing.

PASS HIM ROUND.—A certain Dr. Augustus Chestnutwood, claiming to be a member of Ft. Littleton Lodge, No. 488, I. O. of O. F., has managed to swindle some of the fraternity in this place out of some money. He claims to be a member in good standing, whereas he has been suspended for two years. He pretends to be a physician, and goes a good deal on the usefulness of printers ink. We would advise all printers and Odd Fellows to give the Doctor a wide birth, and pass him round as a swindler and scamp. We will give something handsome to know of his whereabouts.—Indiana Messenger.

BOOKS in variety, at Rankin's.

SEWING MACHINE.—John W. Cooke, one of our enterprising merchants has become Agent for the McClean and Hooper Sewing Machine. It is called the "Elastic Lock Stitch Sewing Machine." It makes first rate work, and is said to be superior to any other machine in the market. The Price of the Machien is $35.00. Its work is warranted not to rip. Every family should have one of these machines.

Mr. Cooke is also making great preparations for the fall trade. His stock of dry goods, groceries Boots and Shoes &c. is not surpassed by any house in the place. Give him a call.

FIRE.—On Monday last while Mrs. Bell and family were engaged in cooking dinner, the house they were living in tpok fire and if it had not been discovered by some working men near by would have been totally destroyed. The roof and the upper story were completely destroyed. The furniture was saved. The house was owned by Mrs Ruth Ward.

The fire company was promptly on the ground but found their hose four hundred feet too short to reach the burning building. They immediately formed themselves into a bucket company and soon succeeded in quenching the flames. Would it not be well for the council to furnish five hundred more feet of Hose and also a goodly supply of buckets?

COUNTY FAIR.—With this number of our paper will be found the Premium list of the Centre County Agricultural Society. Upon an examination the list will prove to have been entirely remoddled and an endeavor made to make it more acceptable to the farming community. Several new features have been introduced. One of these is abolishing of all charges heretofore made for the entring of articles for exhibition. Hereafter and at this Fair no charges will be made except for admission.—Another is that exhibiters will be allowed to sell at public sale on the last day of the exhibition any stock, grain, seeds, vegetables and other articles, they may wish to dispose of.

We wish to call particular attention to a new class No. 27 and called the township contributions. The horses or mares, the harness and wagon, as well as the grain, seeds, flowers, &c., may be contributed by as many different persons as there are articles. The premium will be awarded to the township and be paid to the committee and by them be distributed to those entitled to it. All those who aid the township contributions are left free and have the privilege of competing with individuals, in other classes, for the premiums, by exhibiting similar but not the same articles in the quantities required by conforming to the rules. The premiums in this class are in addition to the other premiums, and do not, therefor, come in competition with the articles of individual exhibitors.

Let our farmers and mechanics, and especially the ladies, arouse and by contributing of their abundance, make such a Fair as will give Centre County manufactures, Centre Count Agriculture and Centre County skill, the high and honorable position they deserve in comparison with the products of the industries of the other counties of the State.

HARRIS TP., S. S. INSTITUTE.

MR. EDITOR:—Do you ever publish anything concerning Sabbath School matters, or in the din of political excitement and war news, would your readers peruse it. Perhaps not, but I may be mistaken, if so, here's a little gossip about the first meeting of the Harris tp., S. S. Institute.

Notice was given to the seven S. S., of the tp., to send their Sunday-school-men to attend and participate in a meeting held at Boalsburg, Sept. 3d., for the purpose of organizing an Institute. Prominent speakers were invited and promised to attend. All favored the movement and expected to be present. Sunday came, and so did the rain. The morning showed that the prospects for a large attendance were as expected clouded as the sky. Under the circumstances, any from a distance could not be. Nevertheless there was a meeting. The three Schools in Boalsburg were fully represented, and there were members from two other schools there. The Institute was organized with Mr. Geo. Sheneberger as President and Mr. H. Stover, as Secty. Three sessions were held in the morning, besides organizing, work was laid out for the afternoon.

The question box afforded a variety of questions on Sunday School topics, for discussion in the afternoon and evening, such as what is the object of a S. S. Institute the aim of the teacher, the qualifications of the teacher? How can all the children of the township be brought into a Sabbath school? The speakers invited were not present, but the discussions were carried on by various members of the Schools represented if not in a very learned or eloquent manner, at least in an earnest and harmonious spirit, in the afternoon. the children present were addressed by Dr. S. H. Vanvalzah, where remarks were very interesting and instructive. At the close of the meeting, a committee was appointed consisting of one member from each School, who in connection with the vice President for the tp., appointed by the county S. S. association, shall conduct the affairs of the institute. Another committee was appointed to visit two places where it was thought S. S., could be established and is probable that this can be done. If so, it was surely not in vain that a little Institute meeting was held on that rainy Saturday. Two objects to be accomplished by this Institute were distinctly set forth, to gather into some Sunday School every child in the tp., and to establish Sunday Schools wherever they are needed in the tp.

As the meeting was ill attended on account of the inclemency of the weather, an adjourned meeting, was appointed to be held at Boalsburg Sept. 17 10 A. M. the Union S. S. room, to which all persons interested in Sabbath Schools (especially those from Harris tp)., are cordially invited.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CELEBRATION.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—A grand Sunday School celebration, was to have been held at Martha Furnace, on Saturday the 3d inst. Extensive preperations had been made to make it a grand success. Bread, cakes, pies, roasts and all the delicacies, the greatest epicure could desire, were prepared, baskets were packed, and everybody was on the tiptoe, of expectation of the good time coming. But alas for human hopes and expectation. Early in the morning it commenced to rain, and came down in torrents all the forenoon. This had different effects on differently constituted people. Whilst some cried with vexation, others got angry and declared that if it had not been that our celebration was to have come off on that day it would not have rained for a month &c. All were disappointed, but about noon the rain ceased and the clouds dispersed. Then came word from the committee of arrangements to keep our provisions, that the celebration would come off on Monday. This news cheered us up, and the provisions were saved for the occasion. Monday morning came beautiful and bright. At an early hour might be seen emerging from our hills and moving along our Valley, wagons laden with baskets of provisions and delegations of bright and happy Sunday school scholars. Whilst many others could be seen coming in squads from different directions on foot. The Bald Eagle Baptist School met at their new meeting house and received the Black Oak Union School with appropriate honors. These two schools then marched in procession to Martha Station, where three other schools had assembled. But just here our grand Marshal made a grand mistake (whether of the head or the heart, I will not say) instead of the home school at Martha receiving these two schools, these two schools received the home school. This master stroke of military strategy left these two schools in the rear, now they would not have any objection to marching in the rear, if there was danger ahead, but when there is a good dinner ahead it is quite a different thing. But I must pass over many interesting incidents. Suffice it to say that a large procession headed by the Sellers Zouaves, with their new and beautiful uniforms, and bright and shining arms and accoutrements marched to the grove a short distance from the station, six hundred and forty by actual count being in the procession, and many on the ground when we arrived. Here we had soul sterring music from the choir of singers chosen for the occasion, accompanied by an organ played by Miss Jennie Thompson. Also prayer and an address by Rev. Mr. Aikers, also an address by Rev. James Chambers, both of the M. E. Church. By this time dinner was announced, and we were marched to the tables in the same order that we came to the grove, here we found a table two hundred and ten feet long, litterally covered with the luxuries of life. It was soon surrounded by the eager multitude. But perhaps I had better drop the curtain just here until we have finished our report. I wil say however that the "good things" disappeared very fast, and we all felt better, and some of us would have weighed more than we did when we went to the table. After this we again repaired to the stand and had an address by Prof. Hughs (Presbyterian) of Bellefonte, after which we marched to the station and were dismissed. This was a union celebration composed of Baptists. But stop—the Baptists were at the other end, I mean of Methodists, Presbyterians, United Brethren and Baptists all mingled harmoniously together, with Union and harmony inscribed on their banners. In a word it was a grand success, and may we all live to have another such, one year hence.

LOCUST.

THE KNABE PIANO.—We refer with special pleasure to the advertisement of the Great Piano Manufactory of Messrs. Wm. Knabe & Co., of Baltimore.

This factory is now one of the largest in the world; it is a magnificent five story structure, fronting an entire block on Eutaw st., and covering, together with the Lumber Yards attached, some two and one-half acres of ground. Three hundred and fifty men are constantly employed turning out over forty instruments per week.

The Knabe Piano has by its superiority not only well nigh driven those of Northen manufacture from the home market, but also enjoys a large sale in New York, Philadelphia and throughout the entire North and West, besides their largely increased Southern trade.

The most talented musicians of the day, both amateur and professional, testify to their superiority, and wherever exhibited they have never failed to carry off the highest awards over all competition, having received no less than 65 first premiums. During the last season distinguished artists at the Opera Houses in Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, Brooklyn, Chicago, &c. There is certainly no instrument made, more durable than the Knabe Piano, none but the best workmen being employed and only the very best of materials used.

REBERSBURG ITEMS.—The village presented an unusual appearance, a short time since, during the progress of the Camp Meeting held near that place, which was largely attended. Those from a distance who came to partake of the enjoyments of a Camp, found, in his Excellency—and famous as a hotelist—Mr. Daniel Hartman, a gentleman well qualified, in every respect, and from the polite and good entertainment they received, have resolved to call again..... Business is somewhat crippled—will revive again next week.......The report—incorrect—circulated by the Watchman, that the falling of a window sash had injured the "toes" of Supt. R. M. Magee. ......The "Teachers Normal" is in its glory now, numbering over eighty pupils. Brainerd and Furey were expected to lecture on Friday, August 26th, but failed to make their appearance. A thorough and complete course has been laid out by the faculty, and by their mighty efforts, the preparation so far has been a perfect success......The Institute was honored on Thursday Eve., Sept. 1st, with a lecture by John F. Potter, Esq., of Bellefonte. Subject: "What a Teacher can do." The attendance, on the part of the teachers, was entire. Prof. Magee introduced the lecturer, who threw out many happy hints and encouragements which, in connection with the Lecturer, the teachers shall long remember.

J.

MR. THOMAS ROBERTS, will lecture in Centre county, as follows:

BALLOU'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE FOR OCTOBER.—The appearance of Ballou's Magazine for October reminds us that the evenings are growing longer and that the people will read to occupy their leisure hours. Now such a magazine as Ballou's is just what is wanted at the fireside. It contains so many good stories, so much poetry of real merit, and so many engravings of interest, and all for 15 cents single copies, or $1.50 per year, that we do not wonder at its circulation being the largest of any magazine in the country. It deserves it, for it is enterprising and full of life. It is for sale at all periodical stores in the country. Thomas & Talbot, 63 Congress Street, Boston, are the publishers.

NOTICE TO THE K. OF P.—Notice is hereby given to Bellefonte Lodge, No. 190, K. of P., that on and after this date, Bellefonte Lodge will meet monthly.—Night of meeting being first Monday night on or after full moon. By order of L. A. MILLER, D. D. G. C.

LOCAL NOTICES.

Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer is becoming a universal favorite for restoring gray hair to its original color, and making hair grow out thick.

We call attention to DeBing's Great Remedies, Advertised in another column, headed "$1,000 Reward."

$1,000 REWARD is offered by the proprietor of Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Medical Discovery for a medicine that will equal it in the cure of all those diseases for which it is recommended; among which are severe, acute or lingering Coughs, Consumption in its early stages, Bronchitis, "Liver Complaint," or "Biliousness" Constipation of the Bowels, Loss of Appetite, Scrofulous diseases, and Skin diseases, as Eruptions, Pimples Blotches and Boils. It is sold by druggists.

DIED.

On Saturday evening, September 10, 1870, in this place, of Scarlet fever, after an illness of six days, James Kepner, only son of J. W. and Mary A. Furey, aged three years, four months and one day.

"Breve et irreparabile tempus omnibus est vitæ."—VIRGIL.

We mourn thee—yet 'tis best that thou art gone,
Freed and unsullied from a world of sin
Gone to that sphere where guilt may never come,
Where sin and sorrow cannot enter in.

As the fair flower, nipt by the wintry blast,
Droops, fades and dies—its incense upward risen:
So, too, with thee—Life's troubled waters past,
Thy dust is earth, thy soul has rest in Heaven.

W. J. THOMPSON.

BELLEFONTE, Sept. 12th, 1870.

LINES WRITTEN ON THE DEATH OF INFANT SON OF J. W. AND MARY A. FUREY.

Why would thou leave us, Oh! lovely child,
This sad and early doom,
And be so soon of joy bereft,
To wither in the tomb?
Oh! green is the turf where you lay,
By death so early torn
From the bright summer's day,
And from every tender tie;
Leaving the parents here to mourn
Love's last expiring sigh.

Fair child, thy parents are wonderers now,
The darkness spread enraps them still;
And till life's closing hour
Their hearts may wake to sorrow's thrill,
But ne'er to pleasures power;
A short but happy lot was thine,
Loved—blest—then early riven,
From where earth's budding joys entwine
To riper joys in Heaven.

MILD, Certain, Safe, Efficient, It is far the best Cathartic remedy yet discovered, and at once relieves and invigorates all the vital functions, without causing injury to any of them. The most complete success has long attended its use in many localities, and it is now offered to the general public with the conviction that it can never fail to accomplish all that is claimed for it. It produces little or no pain; leaves the organs free from irritation, and never over taxes or excites the nervous system. In all diseases of the skin, blood, stomach bowels, liver, kidneys—of children, and in many difficulties peculiar to women, It brings prompt relief and certain cure. The best physicians recommend and prescribe it; and no person who once uses this will voluntarily return to the use of any other cathartic. Sent by mail on receipt of price and postage.

ROSADALIS.

THE GREAT AMERICAN health RESTORER, purifies the blood and cures Scrofula, Syphilis, Skin diseases, Rheumatism, and all Chronic Affections of the blood, Liver and Kidneys. Recommended by the Medical Faculty and many thousands of our best citizens. Read the testimony of Physicians and patients who have used Rosadalis; send for our Rosadalis Guide to Health Book, or Almanac for this year, which we publish for gratuitous distribution; it will give you much valuable information.

Dr. R. W. Carr, of Baltimore, says:

I take pleasure in recommending your Rosadalis as a very powerful alterative. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in a case of secondary syphilis, in which the patient pronounced himself cured after having taken five bottles of your medicine. The other is a case of scrofula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula by which your Rosadalis is made, and find it an excellent compound of alterative ingredients.

Dr. Sparks, of Nicholasville, Ky., says he hasused Rosadalis in cases of Scrofula and Secondary Syphilis with satisfactory results—as a cleaner of the Blood I know no better remedy.

Samuel G. McFadden, Murfreesborough, Tenn., says:

I have used seven bottles of Rosadalis, and am entirely cured of Rheumatism; send me four bottles, as I wish it for my brother, who has scrofulous sore eyes.

Benjamin Bechtol, of Lima, Ohio, writes, I have suffered for twenty years with an inveterate eruption over my whole body; a short time since I purchased a bottle of Rosadalis and it effected a perfect cure.

Rosadalis is sold by F. P. GREEN, and Druggists generally.

WARNER'S.

PILE REMEDY

WARNER'S PILE REMEDY has never failed (not even in one case) to cure the very worst cases of Blind Itching or Bleeding Piles. Those who are afflicted should immediately call on their druggist and get Warner's Pile Remedy. It is expressly for the Piles, and is not recommended to cure any other disease. It has cured many cases of over thirty years standing. Price One Dollar. For sale by druggists everywhere.

DYSPEPSIA.

WARNER'S DYSPEPSIA TONIC is prepared expressly for Dyspeptics and those suffering with habitual Costiveness. It is slightly stimulating tonic and a splendid apetizer; it strengthens the stomach and restores the digestive organs to their healthy state. Weak, nervous and dyspeptic persons should use Warner's Dyspepsia Tonic. For sale by Druggists. Price $1,00.

COUGH NO MORE.

WARNER'S COUGH BALSAM is healing, softening and expectorating. The extraordinary power it possesses in immediately relieving, and eventually curing, the most obstinate causes of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Influenza, Catarrh, Hoarseness, Asthma and Consumption is almost incredible. So prompt is the relief and certain its effects in all the above cases, our physicians are daily prescribing it, and one and all say that it is the most healing and expectorating medicine known. One dose always affords relief, and in most cases one bottle effects a cure. Sold by druggists, in large bottles. Price One Dollar. It is your own fault if you still cough and suffer. The Balsam will cure.

WINE OF LIFE.

The great Blood Purifier and Delicious Drink, Warner's Vinum Vitæ, or Wine of Life, is free from poisonous drugs or impurities, being prepared for those who require a stimulant. It is a splendid appetizer and tonic, and the finest thing in the world for purifying the blood. It is the most pleasant and delicious article ever offered to the public, far superior to brandy, whiskey, wine, bitters, or any other article. It is more healthy, and cheaper. Both male and female, young or old, can take the Wine of Life. It is, in fact, a life preserver. Those who wish to enjoy good health, and a free flow of lively spirits, will do well to take the Wine of Life. It is different from any thing ever before in use. It is sold by druggists; also at all respectable saloons. Price, One Dollar, in quart bottles.

EMMENAGOGUE.

Warner's Emmenagogue is the only article known to cure the Whites, (it will cure in every case.) Where is the family in which this important medicine is not wanted? Mothers, this is the greatest blessing ever offered you, and you should immediately procure it. It is also a sure cure for Female Irregularities, and may be depended upon in every case where the monthly flow has been obstructed through cold or disease. Sold by druggists. Price One Dollar. Or sent by mail on receipt of One Dollar and a Quarter.

Address 619 State St., Chicago.

HALL'S
VEGETABLE SICILIAN
HAIR RENEWER

RESTORES GRAY HAIR TO ITS ORIGINAL COLOR, PROMOTES ITS GROWTH! AND IS A SPLENDID DRESSING. TRY ONE BOTTLE AND THICKEN UP THE THIN LOCKS!

Is the only perfected and scientifically prepared preparation of its kind ever offered to the public, and has no competitor in merit. By its use GRAY HAIR is soon restored to its original youthful color and brilliancy, which is so much admired by all. Persons whose hair is thin or falling out will, by the use of our Renewer, soon see its good effects, as, by its tonic and stimulating properties the hair glands will be incited and the hair grow thick and strong again. In cases of Baldness it will create a new growth unless the follicles are destroyed. It is cooling, and allays all itching and irritation of the scalp. It does not stain the skin as do dyes, but makes the scalp white and clean. As a DRESSING it is the best and most economical preparation in the world, as its effects last so much longer. Send for our Treatise on the hair, free to all, by mail.

COMPLETION OF THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.

GREAT RUSH TO STERNBERGS.

Sung to the tune of Yankee Doodle.

The Great Pacific Railroad's laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And now complete connections made,
An enterprising notion.

The mighty work at last is done,
So speedy and brisk, oh!
And now in ten days we can run
From here to San Francisco.

No more we take the ancient route,
The stage, a horrid slow thing;
It banged the passengers about
And wore out all their clothing.

CHORUS, for the end of each verse:

The Great Pacific Railroad laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And we buy clothes from A. STERNBERG,
A most delightful notion.

Through passengers by the Pacific Railroad will call at the store of A. Sternberg, before starting, and provide themselves with a complete outfit of Spring and Summer clothing, the very best assortment of which will always be found at A. Sternberg's Store.

People who travel by other routes, and also people who, instead of travelling by any route at all, prefer to stay at home, can find the most superior and seasonable garments, for every occasion, of every variety, and at the lowest price.

Do not fail to call and examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere; if you do not, we are sure you will be sorry that you did not. Our goods are put down to the lowest figure. We sell whole suits, according to quality.

THE REPUBLICAN.

Wednesday Morning Sept. 14, 1870.

BARGAINS! BARGAINS!!

The Bellefonte REPUBLICAN and the "American Agriculturist."

We are now prepared to offer the people of Centre county, a Great Bargain for the coming year. It is this: To every subscriber who will send us $3.00 in advance, we will send the

BELLEFONTE "REPUBLICAN,"

and the

'AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST,'

for one year. Of the REPUBLICAN we need not speak at present.

The American Agriculturist is a work that no farmer nor housekeeper should be without. As a farm-journal we think it has no superior in the world—certainly none in the United States. It is issued monthly, and the subscription price is $1.50 per annum. By clubing with the REPUBLICAN you save fifty cents, and secure more good reading matter than you can obtain in any other way for the same money.

We hope the reading public will avail themselves of this very liberal offer.

Farm and Household.

Keeping Grapes Under Ground.

A correspondent of the Grape Culturist says:

"Many years ago, while in the nursery business, a customer wanted some vines of me, and while they were being dug up he asked me if I kept any grapes over winter. This was in March. Of course he got a negative reply. 'Well' said he, 'when I come next week for trees I will bring you some along.' The thing seemed but a joke to me at the time, but of course I thanked him for the kind offer.—True to his promise, when he came a week or ten days thereafter, he brought me some. Not a few berries, as might have been expeted, but at least five pounds. They were Isabellas and Catawbas, perfectly plump, sweet and fresh, although most of the berries had dropped from their stems. With the exception of a very slight earthly taste, they were certainly excellent.

The question, of course, was asked how do you keep them thus? The reply was, that in the fall, as late as the cold would admit, they were gathered in a clear day when perfectly dry; a box about eight inches deep was taken; a layer of green leaves was taken from the vines and laid on the bottom; on these a layer of grapes, then a layer of leaves again, until the box was full, finishing with a layer of leaves. Put the lid on tight, and bury deep enough to escape the frosts of winter. Of course it must be where water cannot settle into the box. The stems of those grapes were quite fresh when given to me.

The man told me his fathe-in-law had kept them thus for years.

To this the editor of the journal adds: "We have often dug up bunches of grapes on layers, late in the fall, when all the grapes on the vines had been frozen long ago, and found them plump sweet and fresh. We do not doubt the method is a good one and worth a trial."

Steaming Fodder For Cattle.

The question "does it pay?" asked with reference to steaming fodder for cows, is one which is pressed upon agricultural editors with more and more force every year. When a notable increase in the price of hay occurs, it is all the more important to farmers to economize in every possible way.—A few facts will guide our readers to a decision relative to their particular use:

1st, Cooked food goes farther than that which is not cooked. It will be within bounds to say that it will go a quarter further. If 100 pounds of dry hay will produce six gallons of milk, it will produce seven and a half when cooked.

2d. The extra labor required to cook the food properly, often costs more than the gain in the quality of the food is worth.

3d. The manure is worth less, in proportion to the amount of food consumed because the food is more thoroughly digested, and less is wasted.

4th. Cooking always pays, provided it is well done, on a sufficiently large scale, and with economical apparatus.

5th. The best application of heat is usually by means of steam generated close at hand.

6th. Steam may be generated economically at a distance, and the cooking be done at the barn, provided the steam is either used for some other purpose near where the boiler stands, or a very large quantity is employed for steaming the feed.

7th. Danger from fire is a serious consideration. Actual fires, or narrow escapes, have occurred on most farms where cooking by steam has been introduced. Care in putting up the apparatus, and vigilance in its use, are the only security against fire.

Things In The Garden Now.

At this period there is frequently much inattention to the cultivation and care of the garden observed.—Many of the early crops are over, and the debris and accumulated weeds are permitted to remain on the ground, where noxious seeds ripen and prepare for a full yield the ensuing year. These weeds and the refuse of haulm of the cultivated crop should be removed at once, and piled up in a square heap in some portion of the garden, or in an adjoining place, to which should be added as the heap increases in size a little manure and muck, or any spare earth at hand, by the time winter sets in there will be quite a show of compost, which by the ensuing spring, say April, will afford several loads of excellent manure for the garden, besides being a convenient disposal of the rubbish of the premises. After this the unoccupied ground should have the grass and weeds hoed and left as a mulch.

Strawberry-beds should be hoed as often as necessary throughout September and October, and the grass and weeds left on the ground. Ditto raspberry-beds.

Lettuce should now be sown for spring transplanting. Spinach should also be sown the first week in September for autumn consumption; and from the 20th of September including the first week in October, for early spring eating.—Germantown Telegraph.

Saving Corn Fodder

To save corn fodder to the best advantage, the corn should be cut off at the ground as soon as the ears are glazed, and set in moderate sized stooks large enough to stand well, and not so large but that the corn will ripen up and cure well. To make the stooks stand well, some care must be taken to set the corn in rather small handfuls, all around alike, so the stook may be well balanced. If set in large armfuls, it is very common to get one side heavier that the other, which is very likely to crowd the stook over. It is also important to husk the corn and secure the fodder as soon as both are well cured, and before the late fall storms have much chance to damage either. The snows of November are very injurious to corn fodder, and especially so when they come with high winds that drive the snow all through the stooks. A very good way to keep corn fodder, is in rather small stacks, well put up and secured against high winds and storms. Except in very dry seasons, cornstalks that make a heavy growth seldom get dry enough to stow away in large mows, but a good deal may be put on scaffolds and other places where it is surrounded with air.

Corn fodder, if thus cut, saved and taken care of, will come out bright, green and sweet, in the winter, and will be freely consumed by nearly all kinds of stock. It will then be found one of the cheapest and best substitutes for hay that is available in American farming. Hence, the present large crop of corn fodder, if thus managed and saved, will go far to make up the deficiency in the hay crop, and be worth millions to the farmers of the United States. The corn will also be more than usually abundant, and be fed, as needed, with the different kinds of fodder to keep stock in a good thriving condition.—Country Gentleman.

Illinois Summer Management Of Swine.

In July, W. H. Wilmot, of Lawn Ridge, Ill., wrote the following to the Farmers' Club:

"Living within sight of the smoke of my chimney are more than fifty farmers, each of whom will sell from $1,000 to $5,000 worth of pork next fall. As near as I can learn, by talking with many of them, they all think that now is the accepted time for erecting steamers and getting mills. They keep their hogs on clover pastures, and all who have mills (and many are just getting them, even if it is not so proper a month as November,) cook small portions of corn meal for their hogs. In this section no milk is fed to the hogs, for the reason that there is hardly enough for the people.—Farmers have found that hogs cannot live and thrive on grass alone, but by making swill with cooked meal they keep the hogs growing, thereby getting large frame hogs before the corn hardens. These farmers generally plant quite large quantities of early sweet corn, which they cut up when in good roasting ear, and feed stalks and all. The success of these swine herds for a few years past has been due to the course I have given. Nearly all began poor, and now are rich."

The examination of the census returns of Louisville was concluded yesterday afternoon. The official count places the population of Louisville at 100,029. This falls 30,000 to 40,000 below the estimate of the population by the citizens before the taking of the census.

Moses Gandey, an old man, employed as boss at Bushong's ore mine, near Reading, Pa., was killed on Tuesday by falling down a shaft fifty feet deep. His light had gone out, and he was groping his way along a level 175 feet below the surface, when he fell down the shaft. He leaves a family.

During the last five years the reduction of taxation, in accordance with acts of Congress, amounts to $251,848,827, and yet it is a standing but now threadbare complaint of Democratic journals and speakers that the Republican party never seeks to ameliorate the burden of taxation on the people. This one fact is a sufficient contradiction.

The work of deepening the channel of Boston harbor has been commenced and dredging scows are now at work day and night in the upper middle bay. The United States engineer officer in charge of the work notifies captains of vessels that they will be held pecuniarily responsible for any damage done by collision with dredging boats or apparatus.

William A. Thompson, of Franklin, was blown to pieces on the 1st inst., by the explosion of two compound torpedoes, while on his way, in a one-horse wagon from Foster farm to Franklin. The wagon was entirely demolished, and the horse so badly injured that he had to be shot. The accident occurred on Bully Hill, one and a half miles from Franklin. J.B.S.

The Cincinnati express train, passing through Albany, N. Y., at two o'clock, A. M., on August 29, ran off the track at Greenbush. Of eleven coaches in the train five were smashed terribly. A brakeman belonging to Rhinebeck, and a woman passenger from Iowa, name unknown, were killed, and a boy had an arm broken. Several other passengers received slight injuries.—The accident was caused by a misplaced switch.

Two men, masked and otherwise disguised, recently entered the U. S. Express car of the Missouri Pacific train, at Scott's Station, about seven miles west of Jefferson City, Mo., and made a furious onslaught on the messenger, John Cleveland. They beat him severely, bound and gagged him, robbed his safe of $10,800 in money, and as the train approached Jefferson city jumped off and escaped. No clue has yet been ascertained as to who they were.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

For all the the Purpose of a Laxative medicine.

Perhaps no one medicineis so universally required by everybody a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use in every county and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill.—The obvious reason is, that it isa more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them: those who have not, knows that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterous drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh, and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal vicera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions from the stomach' bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, BILLIOUS HEADACHE, SICK HEADACHE, JAUNDICE or GREEN SICKNESS, BILLIOUS COLIC and BILLIOUS FEVERS, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhea, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back or Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For DROPSY and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two PILLS to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

DR. PIERCE'S ALT. EXT. OR GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

This is the most thorough blood purifier yet discovered, and cures all humors from the worst Scrofula to a common Eruption. Pimples and Blotches on the face, and scaly or rough skin, which are such annoying blemishes to many young persons, yield to the use of a few bottles of this wonderful medicine. From one to eight bottles cure Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Scalk Head, Ring Worms, Boils, Scaly Eruptions of the Skin, Scrofula Sores, Ulcers and "Canker" in the Mouth and Stomach. It is a pure medicinal extracts of native roots and plants, combining in harmony Nature's most soverign curative properties, which God has instilled into the vegetable kingdom for healing the sick. It is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are languid, sleepless, have nervous apprehensions or fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of weakness, will find convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial. If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated and despondent, have frequent Headache, mouth tastes badly in the morning, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only a part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. For the cure of Habitual Constipation of the Bowels it is a never failing remedy, and, those who have used it for this purpose are loud in its praise. In Bronchial, Throat and Lung Diseases, it has produced many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed. Sold by Druggists at $1,00 per bottle. MANHOOD

In the Young and Rising Generation-

The vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lacklustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwards upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so facinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain. The parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S

EXTRACT BUCHU

For Weakness arising from excesses or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision Langour, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves; no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woeful measures wan Despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consequences.

THE DIAMOND GLASSES,

MANUFACTURED BY

J. E. SPENCER & CO.,

N. Y., which are now offered to the public, are pronounced by all the celebrated Opticians of the World to be the

MOST PERFECT

Natural, Artificial help to the human eye ever known.

They are ground under their own supervision, from minute Crystal Pebbles, melted together, and derive their name "Diamond," on account of their hardness and brilliancy. THE SCIENTIFIC PRINCIPLE on which they are constructed brings the core or centre of the lens directly in front of the eye, producing a clear and distinct vision, as in the natural, healthy sight, and preventing all unpleasant sensations, such as glimmering and wavering of sight, dizziness, &c., peculiar to all others in use. They are Mounted in the Finest Manner, in frames of the best quality, of all materials used for that purpose. THEIR FINISH AND DURABILITY cannot be surpassed.

CAUTION.—None genuine unless bearing their trade mark stamped on every frame.

IN EVERY WAY

WORTHY OF ATTENTION.

THE great advantages we possess, as the result of a large, well-established and successful business, with an experience of more than twenty-five years, enable us to offer inducements to all who are about to become purchasers of second to no establishment in the country. Our garments are all made of the best materials, carefully selected; nothing unsound or in any way imperfect is made up at all, even in the lowest grades of goods. It is a well-established fact among clothiers, that our Ready-Made Clothing, in every thing that goes to make a superior garment, is unequalled by any stock of goods in Philadelphia.

Ready-Made Clothing

Our assortment is so large and varied that every one can be fitted at once, without delay. Our prices are always guaranteed as low, or lower, than the lowest elsewhere. We have also a fine assortment of which will be made up to order, in the best manner, and at prices much lower than are usually charged for Garments made to order.

Gentlemen visiting Philadelphia, can, by having their measure registered on our books, have samples of goods forwarded, with price lists, by mail, at any time, and garments, either made to order or selected from our Ready-Made Stock, forwarded by express, which will be guaranteed to fit correctly.
